Nikola Kostov Andonov
17 January 1887, Sofia – 1981, Sofia

Nikola Andonov has graduated painting in 1913, as a student and adherent of Ivan Markvichka, Anton Mitov and Ivan Angelov, a typical representative of our Academy of Arts and the Bulgarian art in the first half of XX century. The artist was born soon after the Liberation from the Ottoman rule. Throughout his long life, he has been sincerely interested in the genre scene, the big figure and groups of figures, the diversity and the features of the Bulgarian scenery. Nikola Andonov's paintings with their individuality and style, represent traits of the Bulgarian academic impressionism, slightly influenced by fashion trends. His paintings are exhibited in the National Gallery, different museums and art galleries in the country, state agencies and in the Royal's art collection. The immense inheritance of this charming and forgotten artist has been preserved thanks to one of the remarkable art collectors in Bulgaria and his sincere admiror, Mr. Krassimir Dachev. He has bought a large collection of almost all perserved pieces of art by Nikola Andonov from inheritors, owners and commercial galleries. The exhibition and the cattalogue represent a larger part of the collection in its variety, consisting of oil paintings from the WWI, until the beginning of the 1970-s. Doroteya Sokolova
